We will make yet another Q&A video, in wait for our new video equipment to arrive. We haven't had time to complete any extended research lately, and many of the topics we are looking into need more deep-studying. But, as usual, we love Q&As, and we think you do, too. Here are some excellent questions:

QUESTION 1: What if they [the Overlords] know that we intend to leave the matrix and enter the KHAA, will they send beings to make things extremely difficult to do so and try and impede our progress?

ANSWER: Possibly, but they cannot prevent our leaving if that is our intention. It isn't likely that they will send scary monsters to chase you down. That would just strengthen your intention to leave. It is more likely that you will encounter loved ones, spiritual figures, or guides; people who can influence your decision and convince you to follow them. There is an overwhelming presence of what most people report feeling as LOVE in the Between Lives Area (BLA). This is what is used to lure us into the recycling process, not fear. Your passage through the BLA should be very quick – less than a nano second once you locate a hole. If you stay focused on your goal, you will not remain in the BLA long enough to worry about any encounters.

Some beings in the astral, who are involved in the human death process, have a job—an assignment. Their job is to seduce us into entering the tunnel and go towards the Light. They probably won't have instructions to stop US more than others—they are just doing their job. This is the reason why we are stressing that we must NOT pay attention to anything or anyone in the astral before we exit through the Grid. Just focus on a hole in the Grid, and disregard everything being a distraction from that, and you'll be just fine.

QUESTION 2: Children are now being imprinted with the idea that gender is fluid, that there is no such thing as male or female. If the plan is to turn what remains of humanity into cyborgs, what's the idea behind changing the way people see gender from such an early age?

ANSWER: In the Singularity, there will be no genders—we will not be able to reproduce sexually. Our sex drive will also be gone and there will be no family units—new bodies will be created in laboratories, when necessary. The Rockefellers' agenda to destroy the family unit, which started in the 1970s, was a preparation for this, just like the non-gender agenda is today. If they want to prepare people for a non-gender perspective, what would be the best way to do it? By indoctrinating the new generation—the children.

QUESTION 3: Have you heard about the plans to spray the sun in order to block it, and thus, prevent global warming? Were it not being pushed by big names in the science and computing world, I would think it was a sick joke, because we all know that if you block the sun, it will spell the end of all life on Earth? To me, it seems as if they want to terraform the planet, but I can't figure out why. If no-one can get in or out because the planet is in lockdown, what would be the purpose of this?

ANSWER: Some of the concepts and ideas that scientists are proposing right now may be an attempt to lessen the effects of some naturally occurring events and cycles that humanity (at large) is unaware of. It's better to allow us, and even encourage us to believe in conspiracy theories rather than know the truth about things we (and they) can not control. We can't know the motives behind everything that is offered up for us as an agenda. All we can do is see that when new technology or science is presented to us, we are often given a reason for it and that reason almost always turns out to be either only part of the truth or disinformation. To find our own truth of the matter, we would be wise to research everything we think we know about the sun. That's a good beginning to try and determine the motives of the scientific community.

Blocking the sun in order to prevent global warming is just another way to distract people. The main reason for chemtrails, from what we have concluded, is sure enough to terraform the Earth. One of the ingredients in chemtrails is nanobots that they spread all over the planet, and these bots also enter the human blood system. The goal is, according to Dr. Ray Kurzweil, AI and Singularity spokesperson for the Elite's Agenda, to put nanobots in EVERYTHING, including plants, animals, humans, trees, water...you name it. In order for this planet to be ready for the Singularity, the entire planet needs to be terraformed into a nano-technological reality—we will be entering the nano-world, and it's from there they are planning an upcoming attack on Orion.

QUESTION 4: If the planet is in lockdown and no-one can leave or enter, does this mean that space travel is impossible? In other words, that the moon landings and all the other space exploration missions, didn't really happen?

ANSWER: Space travel in the way we have been led to believe, such as in movies, television, and books, only occurs within this matrix. In the KHAA, traveling is mostly accomplished through the nano field. No ships are required. Ships do exist in the KHAA, however; we would never encounter them within this matrix. Like you say in your question, we are in lockdown. We can't say with 100% certainty whether the moon landings did or did not occur. There is very much evidence to suggest that the information given to the public about this event was fabricated. We would suggest that everyone needs to draw their own conclusions about this by doing research. Our construct contains what could be interpreted as a limited copy of "space", but we cannot travel within it, no. It is only a projection.

There is also good evidence that the electromagnetic field is indeed the Grid, and if so, we can't travel beyond it. This is even hinted at in the Bible, Genesis 1, where it says that "God" divided heaven and Earth and put up a firmament to keep the upper and lower waters separated.

QUESTION 5: As far as I know, you are the first researcher to ever come out with the information about the reincarnation trap (thank-you). I know you say you get your information from all your research, but I feel that this knowledge is far too esoteric to be gained from research, as in-depth as this research might be. Please can you specify how you came to the conclusion that there's a reincarnation trap?

ANSWER: I am not the first who came out with the information about the reincarnation trap, but I might have been the first who expanded on it. Without even researching it in the first place, it is obvious that the recycling system is a trap to get us back here into the System. Knowing everything we know about the Alien Invader Force (AIF), there is not even another option. Besides that, I did research it as far as I could go, but in addition to that, I also had “anonymous sources,” who are not from the Matrix, verifying this, and we discussed it at length. Just so you don't think I just go for whatever anyone tells me or discusses with me; one of the sources, in particular, I have known for seven years, and there is no doubt whatsoever in my mind who this source is. To protect my sources, I can't reveal who they are, or their origins.

QUESTION 6: Do we create our own synchronicities in life by our thoughts or is it truly signs from Creator? When one follows synchronicities as affirmations, they are on the right path but then it leads to a really negative experience, why does this happen? Is it some mal intended tricksters from 4D?

ANSWER: This is a great question because there is more than one answer to this. Why do we have synchronicities? We would say that 1) as we wake up, we pay more attention to what is happening around us, so we notice details better. Even people who are “asleep” see these numbers, but they don't reflect on them, 2) it's coming from YOU, the Higher Self, wanting you to pay attention to something, or 3) the trigger that makes us suddenly look at the clock, for example, comes from Spirit Guides, who are not always working in our favor because they are part of the Matrix. It's always a good idea to recall what we were doing or thinking just before we see the numbers or signs. That's often an indicator of why the numbers catch your attention.

Here is an additional way of looking at it: A shift in perspective is another way of determining growth. If you followed your signs or synchronicities to follow a path that is in alignment for your intentions and you encounter a roadblock, why do you perceive this as not being part of the journey? Being able to overcome the roadblocks are what strengthen us and prepare us for being a match to what we want. The path to what we want to achieve in life is not clear and smooth sailing. Sometimes there are blocks that need to be removed. Sometimes we must clear the road of debris if we want to continue to travel that path. Trust the process. If you encounter what you perceive as a negative experience, then take a hard and close look at yourself and the blockages that need to be cleared or healed within you. For example, you may want a new relationship in your life, so you set those intentions. This path may have you stumbling and encountering all sorts of trials and struggles. However, to be a match to the mate you desire, you need to work on these aspects of yourself first before you are ready to enter the ideal relationship you have intended for yourself.

QUESTION 7: One out of every three women make the choice to terminate a pregnancy at some point in their life for a multitude of reasons. Sometimes it's truly her choice, sometimes there is a health issue, and sometimes she is being threatened by an abusive partner. No woman wants to do this, but it continues to be a sensitive global political issue. I personally think the answer is conscious conception. Can you offer some insight and speak to the spiritual reasons and lessons behind a woman having to face this awful decision and how to reconcile the experience when there is so much guilt and regret?

ANSWER: People should take as much care with the decision to bring life into this world as they do with taking a life out. We will not discuss the moral or ethical perspective of abortion. This is a freewill issue and only a decision that an individual can make. If a woman has been given this situation, then this is part of her spiritual growth process and we would never interfere. Her journey to overcoming her guilt and regret will lead her on a wonderful journey of self-discovery and healing. We would never suggest to someone that there are short-cuts in such a profound process. What we say wouldn't matter, anyway.

We cannot absolve anyone of the guilt or regret they feel. The only one who can absolve you is you. You do this by learning to love yourself. Start with this.

Here is an important thing to think about: procreation in this Matrix feeds the System. By having children, we keep the trap alive because we create more bodies for souls to incarnate in. This is something we have been tricked into doing—it keeps the Overlords' Matrix and themselves alive, always having us to feed off. Therefore, when a person becomes aware of the situation we are in, living in this Matrix, it's highly recommended NOT to have children. Why would we want recycled souls (our children) to continue being tortured here? If we still bring children to the world, despite having this knowledge, it's for egotistical reasons, only, with no respect for the child. Once we know the truth, it would be unethical and immoral to put new children into the world. We are aware that this statement might cause reactions, but we want people to think about it.

We are implanted and manipulated into thinking that we need to keep the human species alive, so there is a strong urge to reproduce. However, this was a drive the Overlords put into our physical bodies and minds. If we don't reproduce, the Matrix will fall apart, which would be a good thing.

QUESTION 8: Atlantis was said to be a very technologically advanced civilization. What type of technology do you think they had? Do you think it was similar or identical to the technology we have today, or something totally different?

ANSWER: There are indications that the technology was very similar to what we have now—history repeats itself. When Atlantis went down, the gods were most likely very close, already then, to create the Singularity, but had to start all over again after the Flood.

QUESTION 9: What is the current status of Ereshkigal? What role will she play as we get closer to the full implementation of the singularity?

ANSWER: From all we know, she is still the Queen of the Underworld together with Marduk/Nergal. What her role will be after the Singularity, we don't know.

QUESTION 10: You spoke a lot about us connecting with our higher self. While I agree that the higher self exists, I am having a hard time understanding if we are split apart and fractured at the soul level which higher self are we connected to? If we are splintered apart in the BLA where does all the different soul fires connect to? Does the human soul all connect to same one? If so, aren't we already just a hive mind? Is the queen our higher self? To what extent are we truly individual souls?

ANSWER: You are referring to previous videos we've released about "soul splitting," we presume. We made a series of videos on this subject, and in order to get a fuller picture of how we are constructed, we suggest you watch Video 85: "The Construction of the Soul [Redux]." I think that will answer your questions. But, in summary, in the Between Lives Area (BLA), we are, between incarnations, provided with what we call an "artificial soul" that is not us. Figuratively speaking, we could say that it's like an "overcoat" layer over the true soul that you perceive as being YOU. This overcoat consists of split soul fire from many, many different souls mixed into one. The overcoat consists of memories from traumatized souls that the Overlords have stored in the BLA. When you incarnate, and you experience trauma on Earth, the fear from the trauma gets stored in this artificial soul and will affect and trigger you subconsciously during your life. When you die again, you go to the BLA, the Overlords strip you off your artificial soul fragments, and use this energy to feed themselves and the System/Matrix. You will then get a new overcoat to "fill up" with your own soul energy in the next life—soul energy that the Overlords then will steal from you.

The concept of the Higher Self is twofold; because we humans to a very large degree are RE-active most of the time rather than just Active, we don't operate much from what we perceive as our genuine self—we operate from the artificial soul to a greater or lesser degree, depending on the individual. So, the soul (YOU), IS your Higher Self in that regard—the part of you who knows from previous experience since the beginning of your adventures as a soul. Another aspect of Higher Self would be your Spirit (different concept from soul), and the Spirit is the Queen. We are Her soul fragments—She is our Spiritual Mother.

Your Higher Self is the highest aspect of you. It is the part of you that is still connected to the KHAA and everything that exists beyond this matrix. Since we all come from the same source, we are all direct aspects of Source; our fires are all made of the same Divine essence. It does not matter which configuration our fires take in this life or past lives. The only thing this reconfiguration does is give us a new personality and possibly put us within a different environment from which we would begin to develop that personality. In this way, we are completely individuals who are free to make all the decisions for our own lives. No, we aren't a hive mind. However, we are contributing to the expansion of experience so all our experiences are being collected by what we would call an Oversoul. The Higher Self, if we could follow the connection, would be sending back information in the form of individual experiences to an even higher form of ourselves; the Oversoul. Since we are all part of the same "soul group", we ultimately all have the same Higher Self. This Higher Self works as an individual connection for us here because we have been sold the belief of separation. In truth, there IS NO separation between us. I draw my intuition from the same source as you – Higher Self.

Let's try to use an analogy as an example: The Body is Source. A direct extension of Source would be the arms and legs and all things extending from the body. In our situation, that extension would be the right arm as the Queen of Orion, which would be the Oversoul. At the end of that arm is a hand which would be the Higher Self. The extensions of the hand would be the individual fingers who all have the potential to have different experiences that are perceived to be separate from the hand and the arm, but they are not. What affects the fingers affect the hand. What affects the hand affects the arm. What affects the arm affects the body. Also, what affects one finger has the potential to affect the other fingers. It is all connected, and we are all influencing and having an impact on all aspects or extensions of our being from "top" to "bottom". The body receives no information from the fingers without that information first having to travel through the hand and then the arm. No part is less or more important than any other. No finger is more or less important than another. They ALL work and contribute to how well the body will function. HOWEVER, if we would look at our trap...imagine the elbow is another aspect of the arm (Queen of Orion) and it is the Earth (Mother Gaia). A tourniquet has been placed above the elbow which cuts us off and stops the flow to the rest of the body. The elbow is on the other side of the tourniquet, closest to us. We still have a connection to our Divine Mother despite the tourniquet. Most of us have forgotten this, though. We hope this makes things clearer.

QUESTION 11: I have perhaps a sensitive question because it pertains to one of your sources. Could you tell us more about how this person/persons, whom you have been in contact with, gained such knowledge about the real multiverse? I only ask, not because I feel you are being untruthful with your perspective, however; to know of different avenues to gain greater understanding to the predicament humanity is in. I find it amazing and curious how this info "got out" given our circumstances. It perfectly cuts through the bs of the manipulation and shows us our true potential. I sense a great story here :); one this audience seems to adore. Any understanding you can share is as always much appreciated.

ANSWER: Yes, there is a "greater story," because I have been in contact with what I call "anonymous sources" (see a previous question in this Q&A), with whom I have had many, many discussions over the years. When you read the Wes Penre Papers (WPP), it becomes obvious that with some of the information, there is no way any human can figure that out on their own, so that's where anonymous sources come into the picture—sources that are not part of the Matrix. Unfortunately, I can't go into more details—I need to protect these sources.

QUESTION 12: Is a multiverse a reality?

ANSWER: Yes. Multiverse can mean more than one thing. The Matrix is a universe by itself, and then we have the KHAA, which is the Greater Universe in which we live. Then there are numerous other universes with different sets of rules. Universes were created in clusters of twelve, and there are many, many such clusters—we have no idea how many. Then, each person has their own inner universe, built on their own personal experiences since they entered this universe. On top of that, we create different timelines as soon as we make a decision. We might have two choices about something and choose one of them, but the other choice is also real, and we create that timeline, as well, even though it might not be active. All the above can be considered multiverses.

QUESTION 13: Are you referring outside the 100% universe that the scientists divided as

4% matter (all atoms)

27%+ dark matter (no atoms)

68%+ dark energy (no atoms)

So, the “real universe” you are talking about is outside these numbers?

Using your article #4 as basis... if the real universe is the KHAA . it is INSIDE.... So, the KHAA is the DARK MATTER and DARK ENERGY... is this what you are saying?

ANSWER: Yes, the KHAA is what scientists consider dark matter and dark energy—it’s dark because we’ve been manipulated not to see it—having psychic abilities (ESP) is also called having a “sixth sense,” which is when we tap into the Greater Universe. So, the Universe/KHAA we’re talking about is WITHIN these numbers. Still, like we said in Question 12, there is an unknown number of universes “outside” what we call the 100% Universe.
