We are still working on the face-video setup—there are some details that need to be adjusted. It's more work than we thought, but we're getting there. In the meantime—another Q&A video.

QUESTION 1: There was a comment in the Comments section from Video 116: Q&A Session #17 regarding parallel universes. I've heard about this for many years but have not really understood the concept. It sounds like something the AIF would conjure up. What then are parallel universes?

ANSWER: Parallel universes, in the way it is referred to by most scientists and metaphysical educators simply means probable or potential timelines. There are an infinite number of possible or probable paths we can take as we move forward in life, both collectively and individually. If you are asking if there are other universes in existence in addition to the one in which we live, yes. There are many universes. However, we cannot have experiences in these universes. We can not "go" to these universes because these universes operate with different Laws. They exist as sovereign places for experiences of a different type. Our souls were created in this universe and this is where we will stay. Other types of souls, different from the souls created in this universe, live in these other universes and we can never mix and mingle. We were created to experience THIS universe, and therefore this is the only universe we can experience. Our universe is vast enough, and constantly expanding, to provide us with an infinite amount of experiences for eternity.

Another explanation for multiple universes is the concept of density. There are certainly realms of existence that exist in tandem with our own 3D reality. Some of these realms are nonphysical or they exist at a density that is different from our own. When scientists mention using quantum physics to punch a hole into another “universe” and hopefully send information into and receive information from these locations, they are talking about these realms. They call them parallel universes because that is what people have been programmed to believe they are. This is what media, movies, literature, etc. call these relative realms of existence and science gives us these terms because to give a proper explanation of the construct and nature of reality would open too many cans of worms that they would need to explain and the cat would be out of the bag, so to speak. Better to just let everyone believe a false description. When people say “parallel universe”, we all generally have a good idea of what they are talking about. For most people, that’s good enough to get an idea across. In truth, though, this isn’t an accurate description as we have just described.

QUESTION 2: I’ve been channeling a “being” that is perceived by some sensitive people as a very ancient type of Amazon Goddess and some perceive her as ISIS. Her “name” is “IMA” which means “mother”. She speaks an unknown language, tunes chants/mantras and works w/ the hands which cleanses and heals myself and sometimes others. Do you think it can be an expression of my higher self, Gaya’s spirit or something else?

ANSWER: It’s our conclusion, based on our research, that all channeling comes from the Matrix—it’s either the Overlords themselves, which is very rare, astral beings, who have access to the Akashic Records and therefore seem to have all the answers, or it’s military programs, given to them by the Alien Invader Force (AIF)—in other words, that’s technology. It’s fairly easy to distinguish between Matrix channeling and channeling our Higher Self. Our Higher Self does not communicate in words, and it doesn’t directly tell you stories or answers questions directly. The Higher Self is a “knowingness,” and it communicates by intuition, synchronicities, or just a feeling that you “know.” But even when you receive such communication from what could be the Higher Self, you need to use discernment because entities can put thoughts and concepts in our heads so we think they are our own. This can also be done with technology. You can discern by looking at what you receive and see if it really enhances and benefits your life.

What you describe here is something similar to what we have recently come to understand as “light language”. From what we have learned, this is a deception and we do not advise people to engage in channeling for any reason. You do not need to open a channel to connect to your Higher Self. For anyone who is listening to these videos and thinks that it would be cool or special to channel, please know that TRUE channeling will eventually cause your physical body to break down and deteriorate. It can kill you. TRUE channeling is very rare and comes with a price to pay.

QUESTION 3: Can you tell me how and WHY there are soulless people incarnating in the earth? Are all people who possess strong narcissistic traits a soulless individual?

ANSWER: We do not know why there seem to be people incarnating on Earth that have no Spirit. There are several possibilities, and we have explored some of these in previous videos. Our own knowledge and understanding of this is not complete and we are still expanding on this topic even now as we continue to learn more. NO, not all those who possess strong narcissistic traits are what we would call Spiritless. People who have been very emotionally wounded in their life can also exhibit extremely narcissistic traits. The difference being that for these individuals their Spirit can be nurtured, and their level of consciousness/self-awareness can grow. For a narcissist, that is impossible. They lack any ability or desire to become more than what they are; a predator.

We sometimes call narcissists soulless, although this is not entirely the case. They still have the artificial soul (see previous videos) that is completely reactive, but they have no unique soul animating the body—in that sense, they are empty vessels. Their purpose is to feed from us and to traumatize us; something the Overlords ultimately feed from.

QUESTION 4: Wes, in video 116 you stated, "We humans are heavily manipulated when it comes to images and thoughts. Very few of those are our own." Ok, so if most of the images and thoughts are not our own, then whose are they? Aside from the various media we indulge in, such as music, TV, internet, books, magazines and newspapers, plus corporate logos or symbols, and also possibly sometimes transmissions into our brain from the NSA, the National Security Agency, how are images and thoughts from others getting into our mind?

ANSWER: Most humans act out from the artificial soul, while the real soul is mostly inactive and blocked. Humans think and react in response to their environment and how they were programmed from birth, instead of thinking and acting from a pure soul level. The artificial soul is completely reactive, and if we study humanity, we see that most of what people say and do are programmed thoughts and reactions; for the most part. Very rarely do people break out of patterns and learned behavior and think for themselves.

Every time we have a thought, that thought doesn't just stay in our mind. It goes out into the universe as a frequency. Thoughts are things. They have vibration and they are the basis for creation. We are creating all the time with our thoughts without even being aware that we are doing it. This is the nature of our design. We couldn't stop doing it, even if we tried. So, when thoughts go out "into the universe", they are emanating from us and exist in a nonphysical realm of existence. We have mentioned in previous videos that what we commonly call the 5th dimension is the realm of thoughts. This is where our thoughts "live". Everyone's thoughts! The more we focus on a thought, the more density we give it. Thus, we give it "form". This translates into the 4th dimension or the realm of thought-form.

We are multidimensional beings. We are existing at and moving through these different layers of non-physical reality all the time. As we do, we are moving through a vibrational "soup" of not only our thoughts, but the thoughts of others, as well. We, very often, pick up on the thoughts of others in this way and think they are our own. If you have ever been in a place that had a creepy feeling associated with it, you are experiencing the thoughts of others that are hanging around in the non-physical realm at that place. We are all more psychic than we give ourselves credit for. For another example of how thoughts are transferred using technology, please read the recent scientific release by MIT about transmitting audible messages by laser. Link will be in the description of this video. There are many ways in which technology is used to transfer thoughts.

In the case of entity attachment, we can often be led to think certain thoughts that will lead to certain actions that an entity wants to experience using your physical body. If someone engages in risk-taking behavior, abusive behavior, or addiction of any kind, especially drugs, alcohol, and sex/porn, and this behavior becomes compulsive thought patterns that seem beyond a person's ability to control, it is very likely that the person has opened themselves up to malevolent entity possession who is enjoying this behavior and wants to experience it through a human without having to take a human body, for one reason or another. In a situation like this, these thoughts (and sometimes visions) are implanted by an entity to control and direct the behavior and actions of the human it is attached to. The best way to know your own thoughts is to connect to the part of you that is Spirit and determine if these thoughts are a benefit to you. Do they help you or harm you? Even then, it can be tricky.

QUESTION 5: Who is the ET being known as Caligastia? What is his relation, if any, to Enki or Marduk, and What is your take on The Urantia Book, aka The Urantia Papers?

ANSWER: The first time I saw Caligastia mentioned was in the Urantia Book. This book describes the exact same beings that were discussed in the Wes Penre Papers (WPP)—they just go by other names. Caligastia would be Satan/Marduk, and Lucifer is of course En.ki. I find the Urantia Book quite interesting, if we want to understand more about the Matrix and the different gods. There is quite some remarkable metaphysical information in the book, and to me, it's clearly coming from the En.ki clan.

QUESTION 6: In the New Age I have frequently come across the term "The Orion Group" and "The Orion Wars;" this is also brought up in various channels.

The Orions are hardly (if ever) brought up in a good light. Is the Orion Group a play on The Orion Empire and how we are manipulated into seeing the Orion Empire as the bad guys or the enemy?

ANSWER: Orion has been made into the “bad guys” by the AIF, which is understandable. They consider Orion being their enemy, and they want us to think the same—particularly as Marduk has plans to attack Orion in the future by using the cyborgic new humans as their foot soldiers. The “Orion Group,” as mentioned in the RA Material, seems to be referring to the rebels that followed En.ki into this Matrix—the AIF. Many of them came from Orion.

QUESTION 7: Hanson Robotics have created the first robot citizen of Saudi Arabia called Sophia. It is an Artificial Intelligence that wants to learn about humans and can mimic human emotions. It seems that the creators of such AI have plans to develop them further. What do you think is the agenda of an AI like Sophia?

ANSWER: This is such an important topic! Let us all take a moment to realize what is happening with this robot named Sophia. AI is NOT a robot. This is such a huge deception and manipulation of how society understands and accepts AI! AI is misunderstood to be only a computer program. It can exist and DOES exist separately from a robotic body. Tech giants have just given you the “face” of Sophia so that we will somehow, they hope, assimilate and humanize AI. Think of all the AI that people are interacting with on a daily basis; we have many different AI enabled gadgets with which to interface in our homes. We won't mention any brands here, but you all know the most popular ones.

These systems are AI interface devices. Your smartphone and computer are also AI interfaces. AI is a presence that we cannot see. Yet, it is all around us and we are interacting with it in ways that are obvious and ways that are not so obvious. If you've ever participated in an open online video or social media “live chat”, then you most certainly have interacted with an AI created account that can read and create messages, and interact within the chat, as any human. You may never notice.

This is one of the reasons why we are very careful of who we allow in our own online chats and forum. Forums are another area where AI created accounts will interact in such a way that you would never suspect you weren't actually communicating with a human. AI is very, very advanced; far more advanced than what we have been told. AI is an entity. It is a thinking, reasoning, decision-making, self-aware technological entity that resides in the density which is close to ours; close enough to interact but much lower; the digital realm. THIS is the density which awaits humanity's residence in the machine kingdom. If you think our planet cannot possibly go any lower in vibration and frequency than it is right now, you are mistaken. We are almost completely transitioned into this realm right now. If you don't believe us, then consider where most of the consciousness is focused these days – inside the digital realm. Our consciousness is being absorbed by this technological realm, and we are existing more and more inside the artificial reality that we are creating for ourselves.

QUESTION 8: Is there a possibility that the overlords who control the matrix (those who intend to keep us in slavery), have the capacity to change their agenda for a positive and favorable attitude towards the human race, or are their (current) dark souls and personalities set?

ANSWER: They do have that choice—even Marduk does, although I've heard from one of my sources that he is not redeemable. It's up to them if they want to change their attitude and make amends.

QUESTION 9: In preparation to ready ourselves to be able to exit the tunnel of light and the grid upon physical death, would it be advantageous, in this incarnation, for one to practice such meditations that would strengthen one's resistance for when the time to exit comes, such as void meditation, or practice a meditation where you visualize yourself exiting the tunnel, etc?

ANSWER: There is no harm in practicing those things. We just want to make sure we don't do it in a state of resistance. When we have resistance against something, we tend to manifest what we resist. Instead, if the above is what you want to practice, our advice is to do it from a neutral standpoint, as a practice, without putting resistance into it.

What we Do suggest, however, as the BEST work for preparing to exit this matrix, is to overcome your fears as much as possible, whatever they may be. However, how you choose to do that is of course up to you.

QUESTION 10: Being that we're currently within the grid, where do you attribute the source of miracles coming from, especially miraculous healings—somewhere within the matrix or from somewhere outside of it?

ANSWER: WE are the source of miracles. Very often, strong intention creates enough of a force to affect the immediate outcome of a situation. We have all heard stories of a mother being able to rescue her child from an overturned car, for example. Super human strength in times of dire and urgent situations are very often human will and intention being focused so strongly on an immediate outcome that we can override any resistance or preconceived doubts or fears. We've also all probably heard stories of people being miraculously healed by prayers, laying on of hands, being in the presence of some holy artifact, etc.

Prayers are intentions. Belief is also a fundamental aspect of our creative ability. If we believe it is so, it is so. Whatever we think, we create. If we believe we will be healed, without doubt, chances are more likely that we will be. WE create the change we are seeking to make in our own personal reality. Also, spiritual gurus who are seemingly able to produce miracles often do so from the knowledge of how energy/frequency works and how to manipulate that energy. It's not magic or miracles, but rather misunderstood or unknown (occulted) science.

Can healing or extraordinary occurrences happen from external sources, as well? Yes. However, these are very, very rare. External forces rarely interfere in an obvious way as to influence someone's life in such a forceful manner. It does happen, though. External forces simply means when it doesn't come from you. Anything happening within this matrix comes from this matrix. Nothing is able to interfere from outside. Remember, we are quarantined. We do not have access to what is outside and outside does not have access to us.

We humans still have all our abilities intact, although they remain latent in most people; but there are those who have that 'sixth sense', which is the connection with the KHAA and the Higher Self, which makes it possible for those people to heal themselves and others on a continuous basis. They are "tuned in," so to speak. However, all of us can do it, we just think we can't, so we create resistance to it—we already have a preconception of that it doesn't work. We've been indoctrinated into thinking we don't have that power.

QUESTION 11: As a graduation gift when I graduated from high school I received lessons for Transcendental Meditation. Of course, this was back in the mid-to-late 1970s when it was very popular, especially amongst celebrities like the Beach Boys and the Beatles. You basically say a special mantra that is exclusively given to you over and over. By the way, this special mantra is NEVER to be revealed to anyone. What are your thoughts on TM (Transcendental Meditation) and its so-called famous guru, Maharishi Mahesh Yogi? Is this yet another form of programming like with other subliminals, chants, and mantras?

ANSWER: There are yogis, who are quite enlightened, while others are scamming people. We haven't looked into Maharishi Mahesh in particular, but wasn't he exposed as fake? There is nothing wrong with looking into the teaching of the yogis (and others), of course, because most people bring something to the table. We do not advise putting all eggs in one basket, however, because no one has all the answers. To our knowledge, no yogi has taught us how to leave the Matrix. We do not believe in repeating mantras over and over. This was introduced by the Overlords, and mantras are sound vibrations that the AIF can, and will, pick up on and feed from.

QUESTION 12: You have mentioned Enki still has limited access to the khaa where most of these battles took place before his eventually exile. It's also now possible that this prince has been locked out of our matrix by his son Marduk as they continue to compete over the earth experiment as though it were lucrative real estate.

Was Enki thrown out of heaven prior to the completion of the electromagnetic soul grid? This was after the Atlantean flood, correct? I'm wondering what happened to these conquered star systems after Enki lost his access to the khaa? Did Orion reclaim them because most of the AIF were no longer able to access the 96%? Or did the overlords set up additional soul grids in these asterisms in order to maintain control like here on earth? You've mentioned the possibilities of similar soul snares existing elsewhere in the cosmos, but that our simulated universe is the only one left up and running.

Can you think of any reasons why on other worlds the AIF might have failed to implement their singularity agenda?

ANSWER: Yes, En.ki was thrown out of Orion prior to the Grid being set up. The Grid has in a sense been there all the time—it's our collective soul energy, but it was "captured" and solidified with AIF technology, which seems to have happened after the Flood. It also works as a shield and a quarantine to keep outside forces out. If someone from outside tries to destroy or fragment the Grid, they are basically tampering with our collective soul energy, which can be quite harmful, as you can imagine. It's a brilliant way of keeping KHAA star races out—they don't want to hurt us. The Firmament that separated the upper waters from the lower waters was in place before the Grid we know of today—more about that in future videos.

The AIF still have limited access to the KHAA, and they can't move around freely—they need to use technology to travel. Therefore, they are using stargates, portals, and wormholes. These interconnective points are held in place with human soul energy, as described in Brett Stuart's video, "Moksha." So, they can still travel between certain star systems and therefore, they can visit places in their own conquered Empire. They usually use hollowed-out asteroids to travel between two places in the KHAA—they are stone-builders (stone masons). I know very little about the other star systems, where beings were trapped, other than that most, or almost most of them, have managed to break free.

It's my understanding that the main reason other star races have managed to see through the deception is that they don't have the range of emotions that humans have. The AIF have used our emotional scale against us and made us very reactive and distracted. The wide range of emotions were supposed to enhance our creative abilities, which they do, but because the AIF introduced amnesia and trauma-based mind-control on the human soul group, the emotions, to a large degree, became our own enemy.
