

Video 72: The Event (Transcript)

Written by Ariel Glad, September 25, 2018

The title of this video seems to be a topic that is discussed lately in groups like ours, who follow the information being given by “those in the know” throughout the internet. There are different interpretations of this EVENT and what we might expect to happen. Different dates for this EVENT have come and gone, and some are yet to be fulfilled. An excited anticipation hums in the background for those waiting on the world to change for the better and for humanity’s release from this suppressive and oppressive way of life we seem to have found ourselves in. We would like to take a moment and offer some information of our own for everyone’s discernment and careful consideration.

Depending on what avenue of information we have found ourselves following, the EVENT means different things for different people. We have different words for it, as well, but we all seem to be talking about the same concept. If we put all these different sources together and compare them to a much larger picture, we can see how this information might have been carefully disseminated to the human collective based on whatever the beliefs and desires of these humans might be. We can find this EVENT pervasive through ALL narratives that are all running at the same time. Whatever the interpretation might be, the message is the same; some humans are leaving this Earth while others will be left behind.

For those in the religious/Biblical communities, we might call this event the Rapture. While the concept and word Rapture do not appear in the Bible, it is a belief that is widely held by Christians and it is related to the Second Coming of Christ. If the Rapture is not found in the Bible, then why is this such a strongly held belief, and where does it come from? Some scholars believe that the concept comes from the verse John 14: 1-3. Jesus promised that He would return to Earth to take His people to be with Him. He said, “Let not your heart be troubled; you believe in God, believe also in Me. In My Father’s house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself; that where I am, there you may be also (John 14:1-3, NKJV).

Another interpretation of this EVENT comes from the channeled material by L/L Research group between 1981-1984, where a collective group of entities, acting as one consciousness and referring to itself as Ra, began to give the information we have now come to know as the Law of One. In this channeled information, it was given the term Harvest rather than rapture, but the concept is the same; some humans will be transcending this Earthly realm while others will not. According to your level of frequency vibration, humans were to be sorted into two groups; Service to Self and Service to Others. With each group being no more superior than the other, Ra recognized that both states of being were necessary and where you land on the frequency of this classification system just determines what experience you will have after you have completed this lifetime. See the following excerpt from the channeled material where Ra describes the process of Harvest -- “I am Ra. In the scheme of the Creator, the first step of the mind/body/spirit totality/beingness is to place its mind/body/spirit complex distortion in the proper place of love/light. This is done to ensure proper healing of the complex and eventual attunement with the totality/beingness complex. This takes a very variable length of your time/space. After this is accomplished the experience of the cycle is dissolved and filtered until only the distillation of distortions in its pure form remains. At this time, the harvested mind/body/spirit totality/beingness evaluates the density needs of its beingness and chooses the more appropriate new environment for either a repetition of the cycle or a moving forward into the next cycle. This is the manner of the harvesting, guarded and watched over by many.”

Probably the most familiar narrative that talks about the EVENT comes from the New Age community, whereby humans will be ascending and transcending into a new time/space reality that is commonly referred to as 5D or the 5th Dimension. We do not know exactly where this concept originated from, but it probably comes from the teachings of Madame Blavatsky and her Seven Planes of Existence. One of the sources for this type of information seems to be Dolores Cannon. Dolores Cannon is the developer and pioneer of a therapeutic hypnosis technique called QHHT, or Quantum Healing Hypnosis Technique. You can read about Dolores and QHHT from the link in the description box of this video, so we won't go into much detail about her. A simple description, however, is needed to explain that Dolores began to receive information from her QHHT sessions that seemed to indicate that humans and the Earth were currently undergoing a shift, of sorts. Those humans who were of a more loving and heart-based vibration would be transcending this very low frequency reality that no longer matches their frequency and ascending to a 5th Dimensional Earth that was better suited to vibration of these more spiritually evolved humans. Since then, there have been many people trained in the practice of QHHT, and after the death of Dolores Cannon have been carrying on this dissemination of information to the public by sharing updates and news of this coming transition based on the sessions they have with their own clients.

Then, of course, there are countless others who are receiving information that corresponds to this scenario, but these people are working individually and getting their information in various ways that are personal to them.

Can we see the common theme here? This theme is that the “good” humans (good seed) are going to be leaving the Earth and the “bad” ones (bad seed) are staying here to deal with whatever reality remains on Earth after those who were keeping things in balance with their positivity, light, Love, etc. have gone. In every scenario, the Earth that is left for those who remain is a nightmare. Humanity will be sorted, and it doesn’t matter which way we want to go, personally. We will be measured according to what is in our hearts and minds. Just as the civilization of ancient Egypt recorded, your heart will be weighed.

No matter what course or path of belief we follow, it seems that there are “signs” occurring right now that all point to some type of change or EVENT unfolding. Those who follow the Bible's narrative of the Second Coming are seeing their signs. Those who follow the New Earth narrative are seeing their signs. Those who are waiting for Nibiru and the corresponding planetary bodies to invade our area of the galaxy are seeing their signs. Even the prophecies of the Native Americans are being watched closely for indications of their signs appearing. If it is an End Times narrative, we can be sure that all signs are showing themselves presently, and the alternative history community is buzzing with anticipation.

We do not doubt that these signs are being seen and experienced. How is that possible? How is it possible that everyone's truth or narrative can be happening at the same time? How is it possible for one group of people to see something and others do not? Remember when we stated in an earlier article that one person's reality is based on their own perceptions? What if technology exists that is able to make a person perceive things based on what their mind believes? Is this some crazy Sci-Fi make-believe? We don't think so, and we'll explain the reason.

One phenomenon that has been spreading around the internet in the past year is the Q Anon information. We, admittedly, have not been following this information, but we have a shallow surface knowledge of what is going on, so we are at least familiar with the name. Q Anon seems to be a "whistleblower" personality that appeared on internet forums to leak conspiracy-type information to the public of the secret going-ons within the government. This has gathered quite a large following of people who see this as an attempt to shine a light on the corrupt nature of certain people within the establishment and a “draining of the swamp” or a clean-up of these activities by President Trump’s administration. While, as far as we know, Q Anon is not associated with President Trump in any way, this movement appears to hold our President as a white-hat type, who is working to fix what many people see as so broken. So far, no one knows who Q Anon is; if it’s one person or a group, how they are getting their information, or if it is genuine or just a role-playing game. These questions bring us to the purpose for this article.

While we have promoted several highly-trained and credible remote viewers on this channel, recently we had the good fortune to become aware of one more. His name is Edward Riordan and we will include a link to a series of remote viewing sessions he did recently concerning the Q Anon entity. Keep in mind that these remote viewers do not know what their target is at the time of their sessions. All they are given is a set of numbers that someone else has assigned to the target that they wish to view. This keeps the information uncorrupted and allows the information to come through the remote viewer without any biased or pre-conceived ideas from the remote viewers own imagination or knowledge of whatever the target may be.

Edward Riordan was given the target to remote view and gather information on Q Anon, and what he received was a shock, not only to him, after the target was finally revealed to him, but to us, as well. What was uncovered was a deep, deep well of information not only concerning the Q Anon phenomenon (and we feel that we can say this was the LEAST important of the information that was revealed), but something that appears much more important on a world-wide scale. After watching and listening to these remote-view sessions, we began to see this EVENT being conveyed in the sessions and the reveal of technology that left us overwhelmed and speechless.

If you are familiar with the Singularity, the implementation of the 5G network, a coming EVENT, waves of energy impacting the planet, disturbances in the geo-electric magnetic field of the planet, and AI (artificial intelligence), then we highly recommend you watch these remote viewing sessions on Q Anon and see what kind of conclusions you come to, based on what Edward saw. The shock and disbelief that Edward experienced while conducting these sessions and after he discovered WHAT he was remote viewing is evident. He didn't expect to "go there" and some of what he saw goes WAY beyond anything we currently know regarding technology and what is not only planned for our immediate future, but what is already been done, unbeknownst to us.

A few key elements of technology, similar to Serge Monast's conspiracy theory of Project Blue Beam, also seemed to be revealed in these sessions. If you choose to watch and listen to these remote viewing sessions, we would like to encourage you to keep everything you know about some kind of EVENT in the forefront of your mind as you do and make your own comparisons to what might be occurring. This has been a huge exercise in discernment for us, and it has been extremely valuable to learn about all these narratives. If we didn't know about these narratives, we would not have the information to compare. People like Edward Riordan might have slipped by us unnoticed.

The biggest lesson we have learned recently is to be an observer to what is going on, but not to absorb anyone's narrative. One group's Rapture, Harvest, or Ascension "symptoms" may be another group's latest technology. If we have the assumption that we cannot be affected by or interactive with AI outside of the internet or some type of device, we might want to rethink what we know about AI and what it can do after reviewing the information that came forward in Edward's sessions. As always, this is only for your consideration and your own discernment.

We strongly suggest you watch Edward Riordan's life-changing videos on Q Anon on his channel (see Description box below). After that, please tell us about your interpretations of the videos here in our comment section. This may be the subject of some enlightening discussions!
