Those who know me and have read the Wes Penre Papers (WPP) are aware of that I don't believe in Saviors. All my research has led me to the point where I understand that if we humans want to leave this Matrix, it's up to us. Ariel has come to the same conclusion. Therefore, it's interesting to see what is happening around the planet right now.

In New Age circles, it's been a belief for a long time that we are ascending to the Fifth Dimension—some say that more spiritually aware people have already entered it. Another branch of the Spiritual Community is now saying that we are about to go “home,” and we will get help from outside the Matrix to do so. People have got in contact with beings who say that they are going to help us exit the Matrix by transporting us to somewhere outside the Matrix, which is supposedly our real Home. We will have no choice in the matter because this Matrix is going to be destroyed. Only the heart-based beings will be transported, while the rest will succumb when this Matrix is falling apart. We are not talking about being transported into the KHAA in this case because the messages being given state that the entire Universe (including the KHAA) is Lucifer's universe, and everything in it is corrupt and under his control. Others get a message which is a mix of Christianity and New Age Ascension philosophy. The message in this case is that there is a Father and a Mother waiting for us in the Home Universe, which is located “outside” this entire Universe. The “Parents” have nothing to do with anything in this universe, and they never did. They are simply waiting for us to wake up, one by one, and return to them after this lifetime. In the meantime, we don’t really need to do anything more but wait, pray, and connect with our Parents, who are taking care of us and our best interests.

Everybody is waiting for an Event that will save mankind from being stuck in this entrapment. Although different messengers have slightly different spins on this, there are also many things in common. All of them, from what we have observed, are talking about “Light” in one form or another. The New Age community has always talked about Light, Light-beings, and Light-workers—it’s “old,” but all the other, newer trends are jumping on the Light bandwagon as well, and we’ll give some examples:

The movement that is propagating for an “Event” teaches us that when it’s time for transportation out of this Matrix Universe, we will see a great flash of light that will be brighter than any light we’ve ever seen. We also hear, “we are the Light we’ve always been” thrown around by some.

However, what is more concerning, the way we look at it, is the Christian/New Age movement, where we learn that there are two tunnels of Light when we die and leave our bodies. First, we have the White Light, which is the False Light, leading right into the recycling center, and no one should choose that path. We agree. Then, there is a Golden Light beside it that otherwise looks similar, and that is the True Light, through which we should go. The Golden Light supposedly leads us right to the Home Universe, where our Father and Mother are waiting. It's true that there ARE two lights—a white and a golden—but we are convinced that they both lead back into the trap. One reason for this is because anything we can perceive with our five senses—sight being one of them, whether you're out of the body or not, but still inside the Matrix—it's Lucifer's Realm. Any light we can SEE is Lucifer's light. If we're in the Matrix, and we are surrounded by light that is of a density or dimension outside the Construct, we will NOT be able to perceive it. It's similar if you would see a UFO in the sky--it means that it emanates light that you can see with your human eyes, and thus, it's of the 4% Universe, i.e. En.ki's Matrix and not of the 96%, i.e. the KHAA.

Therefore, we strongly suggest you do NOT choose the Golden Light, either. It can't be anything else but another trap. There is a person we know well, who during an OBE went through the Golden Light and the White Light during the same astral travel. Instinctively, this person felt that it was all staged, and when these thoughts were transmitted, the person was thrown out.

The emphasis on Light is as old as the Matrix. We can go as far back as to Thoth, who also wrote about Light, and that we are of the Light. He also wrote about the “Children of Light” and the “Masters of Light” repeatedly in the “Emerald Tablets of Thoth.” It's important, because all this emphasis on Light has everything to do with Lucifer, the “Light Bringer,” and how we all will return to the “Father/Master of Light”—En.ki/Lucifer. It’s all deception, my friends!

Recently, we’ve been bombarded with all these Light messages from all directions, so we urge you do stay aware and use strong discernment—there is an agenda behind all this. It’s no coincidence that everybody starts talking about these things, virtually at the same time, and we’re sure there’s more to come. How well doesn’t this fit into all the channeled messages about the Harvest, going back to the 1970s-1980s?

Ariel and I have traced back all this entire narrative about an Event in recent time to at least 2010, to a lady calling herself “Yellow Rose for Texas,” whom we know many people follow. She was on different forums already eight years ago, talking about an “Event” that was soon going to happen, thus being a forerunner to what is now being promoted left and right within the Spiritual Community. “Yellow Rose” also claims to be “special” in the sense that she was the first Spirit separating from Source, and all other Spirits and souls in this Universe were created later.

All this smells Intelligence Agency and Military Industrial Complex. They are executing “channeling programming” that is implanted in human bodies that can get activated in certain people when appropriate. They also transmit pictures into people’s heads, so they get “visions” of current and future events, thinking it’s coming from Higher Beings. The technology the Shadow Government possesses, given to them by the Overlords, is so much more advanced than we can imagine. The “voice to skull” communication between the Agencies and targeted individuals (technology-induced telepathy) was beta-tested many years ago, so we know that they have this technology in place already. Some rock bands, such as Rush, are appointed by the Intelligence Community to harass certain individuals with voice-to-skull testing. There are other rock groups involved in this, too, in addition to Rush. I personally know a lady, whose name is Solaris Blueraven, who was the victim of Rush’s voice-to-skull testing and wrote books about it.

Narratives about that the Matrix will be destroyed is nothing new, and we’ll give a good example. There is a thread on Godlike Productions about Grey aliens, now being “good guys,” who have told people that the Harvest is near and that it will happen any day now. I read some of it about two years ago around Christmas, and the “Greys” said that no one had to worry about what would happen after New Year because by then the Harvest would be over and everybody would be dead. Of course, nothing happened, but the thread went on. It must be at least five-thousand pages long by now, and it’s continued for years, and all this time, the Harvest was supposed to happen very, very soon. Despite promises not being kept, people are STILL believing it up to this day and are following the thread, careful to be on the Greys’ good side, so they can be sure they will be harvested. Don’t fall for any of this—they are not aliens, they are US, British and Australian Intelligence Agencies! Pine Gap, anybody? That place is also known as one of Marduk’s personal Headquarters.
