Although the Nag Hammadi and the rest of what is considered the Christian Gnostic Texts are written from a Patriarchal perspective and greatly inverted to fit the Overlords' agenda to keep us within the Patrix (our male-dominated Construct), there is also a lot of wisdom and profound information in the texts. Moreover, the listener will find how much of this corresponds with what we've talked about earlier in our videos and what was written in the Wes Penre Papers (WPP).

In this video, we'd like to point some of that out so people can use this information on their own journey.

So, here are some excerpts from the Nag Hammadi texts.. We will also add some comments after some of the quotes, and we'll see what you think:

Secret Book of John:

“Yaldabaoth stationed seven kings, one for each sphere of heaven, to reign over the seven heavens, and five to reign over the depth of the abyss.”

(Comment: This refers to the Seven Heavens above and the five heavens below that we are going to talk more about in an upcoming video.)

“...Anaro, who is head of the material soul...”

(Comment: Here, the text confirms what we have said in previous videos and to some degree in the Wes Penre Papers—the soul is of the Construct, i.e. the Patrix. The Spirit, however, is eternal).

“The rulers brought Adam into the shadow of death so that they might produce a figure again, from earth, water, fire, and the spirit that comes from matter, that is, from the ignorance of darkness, and desire, and their own false spirit. This is the cave for remodeling the body that these criminals put on the human, the fetter of forgetfulness.”

(Comment: In other words, this part is telling us that humanity went from being immortal to mortal, so long as we remain in this Patrix, and they gave us amnesia).

“Rather, this deep sleep was a loss of sense. Thus the first ruler said through the prophet, I shall make their minds sluggish, that they may neither understand nor discern.”

(Comment: The “deep sleep” is a metaphor for limiting us, so we could thereafter only operate within our five senses).

“[Up to] this day sexual intercourse has persisted because of the first ruler. He planted sexual desire in the woman who belongs to Adam. Through intercourse the first ruler produced duplicate bodies...”

(Comment: We started out androgynous, but Yaldabaoth/En.ki separated the sexes, we became man and woman, and we started reproducing in the Patrix.)

“The human beings were made to drink water of forgetfulness by the first ruler, so that they might not know where they had come from.”

“Those upon whom the spirit of life will descend and whom the spirit will empower will be saved and become perfect and be worthy of greatness and be cleansed there of all evil and the anxieties of wickedness, since they are anxious for nothing except the incorruptible alone, and concerned with that from this moment on, without anger, jealousy, envy, desire, or greed for anything... After birth, if the spirit of life grows, and power comes and strengthens that soul, no one will be able to lead it astray with evil actions. But people upon whom the false spirit descends are misled by it and go astray.”

(Comment: This, most probably, has to do with both ascension and resurrection, depending on point of view. Jesus is telling John that those who can see through the deception will be saved, i.e. they will ascend to the Kingdom [not the Queendom] of the Seventh Heaven that is also the biblical Heaven, which is within the Patrix. The rest, who don't have the genuine Spirit in them, will not ascend).

“The first ruler formulated a plan with his powers. He sent his angels to the human daughters so they might take some of them and raise offspring for their pleasure. At first they were unsuccessful. When they had proved unsuccessful, they met again and devised another plan. They created a contemptible spirit similar to the spirit that had descended, in order to adulterate souls through this spirit. The angels changed their appearance to look like the partners of these women and filled the women with the spirit of darkness that they had concocted, and with evil.

They brought gold, silver, gifts, copper, iron, metal, and all sorts of things. They brought great anxieties to the people who followed them, leading them astray with many deceptions. These people grew old without experiencing pleasure and died without finding truth or knowing the god of truth. In this way all creation was forever enslaved, from the beginning of the world until the present day.

The angels took women, and from the darkness they produced children similar to their spirit. They closed their minds and became stubborn through the stubbornness of the contemptible spirit until the present day.”

The Hypostatis of the Archons:

“A veil exists between the world above and the realms below, and shadow came into being beneath the veil. That shadow became matter, and that shadow was projected apart. And what she (Sophia) had created came to be in matter, like an aborted fetus. It assumed a shape molded out of shadow, and became an arrogant beast resembling a lion. It was androgynous, as I have already said, because it derived from matter.”

(Comment: And thus, we have the Firmament).

Authorative Teaching:

“In this very way we exist in this world, like fish. The adversary spies on us, lying in wait for us like a fisherman, wishing to seize us, rejoicing that he might swallow us. For he places many foods before our eyes (things) which belong to this world. He wishes to make us desire one of them and to taste only a little, so that he may seize us with his hidden poison and bring us out of freedom and take us into slavery. For whenever he catches us with a single food, it is indeed necessary for us to desire the rest. Finally, then, such things become the food of death.”

(Comment: Jesus is trying to wake up humanity so that he can resurrect those who are strong in Spirit, while also telling us that those who don't wake up will go with the Adversary, who is Satan or Marduk).

“...the ones who are ignorant - do not seek after God. Nor do they inquire about their dwelling-place, which exists in rest, but they go about in bestiality. They are more wicked than the pagans, because first of all they do not inquire about God, for their hardness of heart draws them down to make them their cruelty. Furthermore, if they find someone else who asks about his salvation, their hardness of heart sets to work upon that man. And if he does not stop asking, they kill him by their cruelty, thinking that they have done a good thing for themselves. Indeed they are sons of the devil!”

The Concept of our Great Power:

“Then the firmaments will fall down into the depth. Then the sons of matter will perish; they will not be, henceforth.”

(Comment: This seems to “predict” the Event, i.e. an end-of-the-world scenario, where the firmaments will come down. We will talk about the Firmament and the Grid some more in an upcoming video. Because the term “firmament” is here mentioned in plural, it makes us wonder if the Grid is included in this scenario, as well).

The Dialogue of a Savior:

“It was higher than the path [...] surrounds the entire earth [...] the collected water [...] existing outside them. [...] the water, a great fire encircling them like a wall. [...] time once many things had become separated from what was inside.”

(Comment: The human soul—the highest part of the soul, or the avatar that will survive the Patrix, is made of fire, so it’s reasonable to think that the “great fire encircling them like a wall” could be the Grid, consisting of human fire).

“When a Word comes forth from the Greatness, it will come on what supports the heaven and the earth. For the earth does not move. Were it to move, it would fall. “

(Comment: If the world is a globe and rotates, how can the Earth stand still? How was this “planet” actually constructed? Is it round, flat, concave? This is something we also will discuss later in this video series).

“Matthew said, ‘Lord, you have spoken about the end of everything without concern.’ The Lord said, ‘You have understood all the things I have said to you, and you have accepted them on faith. If you have known them, then they are yours. If not, then they are not yours.’”

(Comment: Words of wisdom. We can accept things by faith, but not until we feel it in our heart. When we make it ours, it becomes part of us.)

“They said to him, ‘What is the place to which we are going?’ The Lord said, ‘Stand in the place you can reach!’”

“The visible parts of the body that are dead will not be saved. ... The world is an illusion.”

Trimorphic Protennoia:

“Now the great demon began to make aeons in the likeness of the real eternal realms, except that he produced them out of his own power.”

(Comment: In other words, the archons copied something that was already existing and made it theirs).

“Stop, stop, you who walk on matter. Look, I am coming down to the world of mortals for my portion that was there from the time when the innocent Sophia was conquered.”

(Comment: The reference to Sophia being conquered seems to refer to the War of the Titans, in which Tiamat was destroyed. This quote is from the “Sethian Gnostic Gospels”).

A Valentinian Exposition:

“I will speak my mystery to those who are mine and to those who will be mine.”

(Comment: En.ki, in the incarnation of Jesus/Thoth/Hermes, is tricking spirited humans to enter HIS Realm. Again...ascension!)

“... And he separated them from one another, and the better passions he introduced into the spirit and the worse ones into the carnal.”

(Comment: The polarity concept revisited. En.ki and Thoth are “educating” the true Spirit, while Marduk is taking care of the rest, molding them in HIS image).

“And Cain killed Abel his brother, for the Demiurge breathed into them his spirit. And there took place the struggle with the apostasy of the angels and mankind, those of the right with those of the left, those in heaven with those on earth, the spirits with the carnal, and the Devil against God. Therefore the angels lusted after the daughters of men and came down to flesh so that God would cause a flood.”

(Comment: More of polarity).

The Gospel of Thomas:

“If your leaders tell you, ‘Look, the kingdom is in heaven,’ then the birds of heaven will precede you. If they say to you, ‘It’s in the sea,’ then the fish will precede you. But the kingdom is inside you and it is outside you. When you know yourselves, then you will be known, and you will understand that you are children of the living father. But if you do not know yourselves, then you dwell in poverty and you are poverty.”

(Comment: En.ki is determined to lure us into his fold. Lots of truth in here, but as you might notice, this “truth” is redirecting us toward the Kingdom of Heaven, which is not of the Feminine, but the Masculine kind.)

“Yeshua said, People may think I have come to impose peace upon the world. They do not know that I have come to impose conflicts upon the earth: fire, sword, war. For there will be five in a house. There will be three against two and two against three, father against son and son against father, and they will stand alone.”

(Comment: Isn't this exactly how we feel—we who are waking up?)

“Yeshua said, Whoever has come to know the world has discovered a carcass, and whoever has discovered a carcass, of that person the world is not worthy.”

“Yeshua said, Whoever has come to know the world has discovered the body, and whoever has discovered the body, of that person the world is not worthy.”

(Comment: When we see how this Patrix is constructed, we no longer want to be part of it, as we have experienced. Instead, Yeshua wants us to follow him into Heaven).

And last, but not the least, the most blatant inversion in the Gnostic texts that we have found:

“Shimon Kefa said to them, Miryam should leave us. Females are not worthy of life.

Yeshua said, Look, I shall guide her to make her male, so she too may become a living spirit resembling you males. For every female who makes herself male will enter the kingdom of heaven.”

There is much in the Nag Hammadi that is quite accurate, but it needs to be inverted to make sense. En.ki and Thoth have a brilliant way of using word and they know how to twist them. Those, who are not aware of what the KHAA is and that the Universe is feminine in nature, will unwittingly go right into the trap and ascend, not to the KHAA or any real higher densities and dimensions, but to the highest available density within the Patrix.

We will be back with more videos in this series.

We also want to make a shout-out for our Tier 3 and Tier members, to whom we are extremely grateful. You are of enormous help. So are those who signed up on the other Tiers as well, of course, and your names will be mentioned at the end of this video.
