One of the most important pieces of information we gathered from reading the Nag Hammadi texts was the confirmation of the Spirit.

We would like to take this opportunity to clarify, once and for all, the concept of Spirit and Soul before we move on.

These words are often confused and interchangeable in communities like ours, but we would like everyone to understand that, just as we have said in previous videos, these words are not interchangeable and the Spirit is something separate from the Soul, and we have BOTH.

The Spirit is who we are at our core being. This is the Spirit of the Divine (Sophia or Divine Feminine) that was brought forth and expressed as individuated and independent aspects.

Keep in mind that “the Father” was used to convey the concept of Source. There is no “Father” or “God”, and this is explained, as well, in the Apocryphon of John. The concept of God or Father came later from Yaldabaoth/En.ki.

What is our Spirit? As Source or The ALL began to know the qualities of Itself, it manifested:

“She is the first power who preceded everything and came forth from the father’s (or The ALL) mind as the forethought of all. Her light shines like the father’s (ALL’s) light; she, the perfect power, is the image of the perfect and invisible virgin spirit.

She, the first power, the glory of Barbelo, the perfect glory among the realms, the glory of revelation, she glorified and praised the virgin spirit, for because of the spirit she had come forth.

She is the first thought, the image of the spirit. She became the universal womb, for she precedes everything.” The Apocryphon of John, the Nag Hammadi texts.

SHE is our Divine Mother who manifested as the FIRST power to come from the Unknowable Spirit. She is the Universal Womb. This Spirit is US. When the Spirit is divided into aspects or Aeons, we see the qualities of OUR SPIRIT, as follows:

Will

Thought

Life

Understanding

Grace

Perception

Thoughtfulness

Truth

Form

Afterthought

Memory

Love

Idea

Peace

Wisdom (Sophia)

This was mimicked by En.ki, as we will describe later, to include aspects that are NOT inherent to Divine Spirit when he created a false spirit. Some of the aspects he designed and included are jealousy, lordship, and kingdom. These would be found in the Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit from Isaiah, chapter 11.

Both the Nag Hammadi and the Bible describe these specific aspects and are NOT to be confused with the Fruits of the Spirit. These other seven, being “gifts”, have the implication that they were given to us and not something inherent to us, originally.

Spirit is eternal and it is this part of us to which some refer to as being “asleep” or awake. Spirit is weak or strong, at various levels of operation, depending upon how much you have woken up this Divine aspect of yourself. Spirit is that part of you which allows you to connect to the Spirit of others. It is that part of you from which your intuition and guidance, compassion and understanding, growth and consciousness springs forth. Your Spirit is that part of you which is your Higher Self. When you connect to the Spirit of another Spirited being, your Spirits are in harmony. Your Spirits enhance and encourage the waking process for each other and the combining of these Spirits is an increase, never a decrease in vibration or draining of energy.

In order for these aspects of the Divine, the individuated Spirits, to interact within this realm of matter, the Spirit needs to be inserted into a material energy body that we call the Soul. It is THROUGH the Soul that the Spirit is able to act and interact with Her environment and participate in creation. This Soul houses the Spirit to keep the Spirit separate from Her original Source and maintain Her individual experiences. We all come from the same Source therefore we are all individual aspects of the same Spirit, but we are having different experiences. The Soul is the collector of these experiences and by allowing Spirit to interact with these experiences we grow and create.

This Soul was given to us by our Divine Mother. It was not used as a torture device. It was not a suppressive and constricting “suit” worn by the Spirit. It was something to be used in collaboration with the Spirit in order to grow and create what would benefit our realm of existence. Our Soul, in this collaboration, would become infused by the Divine Fire of our Spirit and it was meant to be used as our vehicle for creation. We drew energy, not from each other, but from the Central Fire of the Universe, and in return we gave back that which we learned from our experiences so that all might benefit from what we have experienced. It was harmonious and synchronistic. Energy came in and energy went out like a constant and never-ending flow with no distinction of where energy started and where it stopped. Everything worked with collaboration and benefited everything else.

Keep this Spirit/Soul vehicle or avatar in mind. This was our ORIGINAL construction.

So, what happened? This Spirit/Soul avatar became trapped within another constructed energy body in order to participate in a new realm of existence, one that was separate and apart from the realm in which we were previously existing. A new soul, an ARTIFICIAL copy of the original soul, was created to contain the original Spirit/Soul and this artificial soul was very much inferior. Just as the Soul was needed for the Spirit to interact and have experiences in Her realm of existence, so too was a Soul needed to house this original vehicle in her NEW realm of existence – this matrix. Everything here is just a manipulated copy of something that exists as an original design.

This new artificial soul was not only inferior, it was suppressive, reactive, and easily manipulated – intentionally. The flow of energy from the Central Fire was no longer continuous and uninterrupted. Our new soul had something added to it which allowed this energy to become separated, fragmented, or fractalized and used by etheric beings, who could draw this energy out through the holes that were constructed within the artificial soul. We were now “leaking” energy out to our environment, all the while becoming more and more depleted.

The original Spirit/Soul vehicle, which was encased in this harmful new artificial soul construct was become less and less “alive” and began to fall “asleep” due to all Her life-force energy being siphoned off and consumed. The more asleep she became, the less she was able to reconnect to that Central Fire from which she was once connected. Indeed, she had even forgotten that she had this connection from the beginning!

Not remembering this connection created her need to get life-force energy from another source – OTHER Spirits that were locked into this trap with her. Spirits then began feeding from each other to receive and maintain their much-needed energy, lest they fall asleep, entirely. The less energy the Spirit has, the more asleep she becomes. The more asleep she becomes, the less she is able to work and move through the Soul/soul in order to interact with her environment and instead gives up control of her experiences to ONLY the outermost layers of her vehicle – the physical body and the artificial soul. The less she is able to express herself through the layers placed over her, the more she begins to believe THIS – these outer layers - is who she is and ALL she is. She can no longer experience the core of her being – her Spirit. Her focus is kept entirely on the outermost layers of her experiences and all inclinations or intuitive efforts to turn inward instead of outward are discouraged and even punished. Operating mostly from these outer layers produces a predictable series of stimulated automatic responses and emotions which her environment relentlessly provokes from her.

Every time she has an experience, that experience generates an emotion, be it “good” or “bad” and that emotion or energy that she produces is taken from her to not only feed etheric beings who manipulate the circumstances of her life to generate the energy they want, but to also feed those others around her who depend on this energy. These others are dependent on this energy because, like we stated earlier, they, too, have lost their connection to their own Source of life-force energy, being so suppressed and asleep within their own suits.

This artificial soul is part of this artificial construct, this trap for Spirits. It is the suit we wear when we enter this game. When we leave this game, we shed this suit back to the system and get a new suit each time we incarnate. Have you ever seen people working in a biohazardous environment? What do they wear? They wear a special suit, don't they? When they leave that environment, they don't take the suit home with them. No, that suit has become contaminated by their environment and they must remove the suit in a designated area before they are allowed to leave. That contaminated suit is then destroyed. It can no longer be used by another. If they must enter the area again the next day, they don't put on the same suit. No, they get a new suit. This is what happens to us when we recycle through the between lives area. We are given new suits with which to return to the game, and the suits belong to the “area” or the game.

There are also others feeding from us who have never and will never have that Divine connection. Who are these others? Another thing that has been confirmed to us by reading the Nag Hammadi texts is that there exists among us, those who DO NOT HAVE SPIRIT. They look like us, but they certainly don't act like us. Being void of a Divine Spirit, they are only a “suit” interacting with this environment and they get their energy from us, those with Spirits. En.ki made copies or mimics, remember, of everything that existed as an original design, and so he not only created artificial souls, but he also breathed artificial “spirit” into these beings. They are excellent mimics, just like him, and we get fooled or tricked by them all the time. These spirits are aspects of HIM, and because he is the manifestation of deficiency or polarity, his spirit is the anti-spirit. It is the qualities of everything that is opposed to our Divine Spirit. It is suppressive, self-focused, hungry, perverted, impulsive, vacant, and never expanding. It seeks to always provoke and generate energy from others because it cannot and will never be able to form a connection to the Source of ALL THINGS, from which we are able to generate our own energy. It is an empty vessel that is driven to feed itself. These empty “suits” are part of this construct and there is nothing within them to reincarnate again into a new suit for another turn at life. When their turn is over, that suit is shed just like ours and being nothing inside, their turn is over. They are not eternal, and they are temporary. They were never an original Spirit/Soul vehicle. They are anti-creation. They are destruction, and they seek to destroy anything and everything around them, whether they are aware of it or not.

When we read comments from those of you who would like to remain within this game, only a BETTER version of the game, we hope that the reason this is not a solution is clearer. As long as this game exists, these other players will also exist. As long we agree to play the game with them, we risk being damaged by them and fed upon by them with each incarnation. They are PART of the game since they were made FOR the game, and ALL suits (including ours) just get recycled and used to make new suits for the game, ad infinitum (forever). In order to play the game, you must agree to wear the proper suit(soul) for the game.

Does our information and encouragement to learn about narcissism begin to fit into the big picture for you? It certainly did for us and even more so now that we have had this confirmed from texts written thousands of years ago that describe this very nature and how these artificially created humans were inserted among us with the most evil of intentions. These are En.ki’s children and they keep the system running for him, like a machine.

"He sent his angels to the human daughters so they might take some of them and raise offspring for their pleasure. At first they were unsuccessful. When they had proved unsuccessful, they met again and devised another plan. They created a contemptible spirit similar to the spirit that had descended, in order to adulterate souls through this spirit. The angels changed their appearance to look like the partners of these women and filled the women with the spirit of darkness that they had concocted, and with evil." – Apocryphon of John, the Nag Hammadi texts

"As incorruptibility looked down into the region of the waters, her image appeared in the waters, and the authorities of the darkness became enamored of her. But they could not lay hold of that image which had appeared to them in the waters, because of their weakness, since beings that merely have soul cannot lay hold of those that have spirit. For they were from below, while it was from above." – Hypostasis of the Archons, the Nag Hammadi texts.

"The rulers took counsel with one another and said, "Come, let us cause a deep sleep to fall on Adam." And he slept. Now, the deep sleep that they caused to fall on him, and he slept, is ignorance. They opened his side, which was like a living woman. And they built up his side with some flesh in place of her, and Adam came to be only with soul." – Hypostasis of the Archons, the Nag Hammadi texts.

The qualities of our Spirit that we mentioned earlier are how we know them from us. These have also been called the Fruits of the Spirit in Paul's letter to the Galatians.

"But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law." – King James Version, Galatians 5:22

There is no authority which presides over humanity. Authority only exists within this patrix because we have forgotten who we are. When we remember and wake up our Spirit, an inner shift occurs and a process of growth begins as the Spirit moves through the wounds of the Soul to heal and soothe the damaged parts, close the holes, reconnect to our Spiritual Source, and prepare to exit the game. This can be a difficult process and we are constantly bombarded with things that would have us put back to sleep! When Spirit wakes up, She sees the game for what it is and the attachment that is held by the artificial soul (because it is part of the game) is no longer stronger than the Spirit. Artificial soul wants to keep playing the game because it is afraid not to (fears death) – remember artificial soul gets destroyed after the turn. However, NOTHING is stronger than your Spirit. This is what they do not want you to realize.

THIS is who we are. THIS is Spirit. If we wake up these aspects of ourselves, we allow our Spirit to move through the Soul to interact with the realm in which we exist. This has been perverted and manipulated by the process we described in this article (and previous articles) to keep us trapped within an artificially created construct which is designed to MIMIC our True Home.
