This will be the final video for this section on the human avatar; US.

It was mentioned in the previous video that the addition of an artificial type of “soul” was added to us by En.ki to encapsulate our original Spirit/Soul construction. This construction or avatar was given to us by our Divine Mother for operation in the KHAA.

When humanity was lured into participating in the current enclosed trap system within which we find ourselves, the original Spirit/soul avatar was trapped into an artificially constructed soul “suit” which enabled the manipulation and thus extraction of our energy to feed, not only the Overlords, but also other human avatars who lack this original Spirit/Soul construct. These other humans’ avatars ONLY consist of the artificial soul construct.

This artificial soul construct is required to be able to participate in this enclosed trap system. It is, indeed, PART of the system and after each incarnation this artificially created soul suit is stripped off, parts of it devoured, parts of it fed into the system to maintain it, and whatever remains are used to create new soul suits for another incarnation, not necessarily by the same human who used it last time.

Based on our research, this artificial soul suit is what we have come to know as the human chakra system. This artificial soul comes equipped with the necessary portals from which to manipulate and extract human energy. Each portal or chakra is designed to elicit and emit a certain type of energy or emotion, depending upon the desired response of the predator who is needing a specific type of energy on which to feed. In other words, these are where we take our “hits”, and these are where we incur our damage or emotional trauma.

When too much energy or too much damage has been sustained by a particular energy portal or chakra, we sometimes will say this chakra is “blocked”. It has even been strongly indicated that when a chakra or energy portal becomes excessively blocked, physical ailments and dis-eases may occur in correspondence to that area. This certainly has been confirmed by many who have studied the relationship between emotions and illness.

This type of damage and influence is then “seen” by those with clairvoyant skills (or even some types of sensitive photography) as a color distortion in our aura. The reason for this is because each portal of energy is associated with a specific color, which is represented by a corresponding energy body of that same color, which all together make up the rainbow-hued electromagnetic emission that surrounds us at all times.

It is no coincidence that these colorful energy chakras, identical to a rainbow, are the exact same pattern of visible color we see when white light, being forced through a prism, will fragment or separate into what we know as the visible light spectrum; red, orange, yellow, green, blue, indigo, violet. At some point and in some way that is unknown to us, the artificial soul suit works in the same way as a prism – it takes the WHITE light of our original design, fragments, and separates it into what we know of as the chakra system.

The Divine Spirit, which is at the core of our avatar, is imbued with very specific qualities. As mentioned in the previous video, these qualities can be summarized by the Fruits of the Spirit described in the Bible. They are love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness and temperance (Gal 5:22-23). These are the Aeons which reside within us, just as the Aeons that reside in the Pleroma as qualities or aspects of Source. These are our “consorts”. These are the qualities that we are given choice to interact with in our reality. From this interaction, we create our reality in collaboration with these qualities or consorts. What a beautiful existence we would have if we only created from these Divine qualities within us! That doesn’t happen, though, does it? Why not?

Because everything here is just a copy of an original design. En.ki also took these qualities of the Human Spirit, and not only copied them, but distorted them to make them his own. Into our artificial soul suit, he imbedded these abominations of the original design. They are represented as the “seven deadly sins”, also known as the Cardinal sins or the Cardinal vices. They are pride, greed, lust, envy, gluttony, wrath, and sloth. These were the “consorts” that were added to our design, and it is through THESE attributes or consorts that most humans create their reality and these that are responsible for ALL our emotional wounds. Each vice is represented and governed by a chakra, in much the same way that the seven heavenly realms En.ki created within this patrix are each governed by a Lord. (The Patrix design will be the next topic for our series.)

If that isn't bad enough, the qualities of the Spirit were also hijacked into what has been described as the Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit. These “gifts” resemble the Fruits of the Spirit, albeit with just a little adjustment. Examination of each of these gifts will reveal that they are not qualities of Spirit, rather they are counterparts to the vices and designed to focus humanity's creation for the benefit of En.ki rather than humans. (This is also described in the WingMakers material, quite similarly, with the Sovereign Integral Process as Insertive Behaviors.)

The Gifts of the Holy Spirit are wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord.

Let's take a look at that last one first. Fear of the Lord is obviously NOT an original Spiritual quality. Anything done or said in fear is not a beneficial aspect of creation. Also, there is no hierarchy above us, therefore, there is no LORD to fear. This gift is also interpreted to mean the awareness of the grandeur of God, rather than fear of punishment. The Source of ALL is not vain or requiring of worship or glory, therefore, that She would instill in Her creation an awareness of Her awesome-ness which would also mean it is one of Her OWN attributes doesn't make sense. Also, because our Spirit is really an aspect of HER Spirit, this vainglorious attribute that we should be in wonder or awe of ourselves doesn't seem to fit. It is a contradiction to the Divine Spiritual quality of meekness or humility.

The next gifts to examine are wisdom, understanding, and counsel. Wisdom is interpreted to be an attraction to the Divine. It is known as the path one takes to know God. A wise man will seek God's will above his own. Understanding is interpreted to mean understanding the supernatural nature or the true Divine purpose of God expressed in all things. Nothing is random and everything is to be given to the glory of God. Counsel is interpreted to mean intuition or the ability to judge right from wrong. We are to be our own counsel, but with God as the ultimate judge to grade our decisions accordingly.

The next gifts are fortitude, knowledge, and piety. Fortitude is interpreted to mean strength. This can mean the strength to stand up for what you know is right or the strength to endure evil. In other words, the strength to endure suffering. This is in contrast to the qualities of the Spirit, since the motivation for such strength indicates an adversary. If you do not have an adversary, then you do not require the necessary strength to confront it. No, it is only within this enclosed trap system that we need strength to endure what our adversary dishes out. The gift of knowledge is interpreted to mean "seeing things from God's perspective". If you are familiar with the Wes Penre Papers (WPP), then you are well aware that one of the most important methods of manipulation by the Overlords is not that they LIE to us, no, it is that they convince us to see things from THEIR perspective. This fits right into their agenda like a key in a lock. Enough said on that one. Piety is interpreted as trust, reverence, and reliability ONLY for God. This puts humans into such a state of submission to a supreme overseer that we don't feel we need to expand on it. We will let you come to your own conclusion on how beneficial this would be as a quality of the Divine Spirit – to put ALL of Her trust in an external Overseer, of sorts.

It is not hard to see that the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit are merely En.ki inserting into us an innate desire to worship, glorify, trust, and fear him. ALL of these gifts ultimately end up benefiting ONLY him and not us in any way.

With this built-in programming that works in association with the damaging effects of the artificial soul's chakra energy portals, we can see just how complex and deeply-rooted our situation has become here.

In our research, to this point, we have concluded that we are:

*An aspect of the Divine Feminine Spirit which is the Source of ALL CREATION.

*These Spirit aspects were given a Soul by our Divine Mother to keep them separate from Her in order to operate and interact as an individual.

*These individual Spirit/soul avatars were given a special place to have those experiences with specific intentions and purpose. While in this place, a physical body was also created and given as part of the experience to interact with the physical environment of the place.

*After a series of cataclysmic events, these avatars were then captured, trapped, and placed within a very limiting, suppressive, and damaging NEW soul construction created and designed by En.ki.

*Some artificially created humans are only comprised of this artificial soul. They have no original Divine Spirit/soul at their core being. They are vacant vessels used to sustain the method of operation within the system – the parasitic dynamic. They are PART of the system and they do not reincarnate. Containing only artificial soul or only chakra system, they are completely consumed/devoured either by the system or the Overlords after each incarnation. Artificial soul suits that were Spirited during their incarnation are used, in part, to create new suits for another incarnation, but not necessarily for the same Spirit.

We are, in progression from the core and outward – Spirit, within a Soul, trapped within an artificial soul construction, trapped within an artificial reality, which is within a boundary portion of the KHAA (or the VOID), which is within a boundary portion of the Pleroma – the FULLNESS of CREATION.

We hope this has become a much clearer picture for you of who we are, just as it has been for us. Personal experiences have led us to dive deeply into this subject and better understand what we are up against, which resulted in discovering why we are in such bad shape and how it is being done. Afterall, if we don't know the problem, we can't find a solution.

This has been the simplest explanation that we have concluded from a very complex design. We do not know all the details or technology and methods used to achieve such a design, but we are content that our understanding is good enough to move forward from this point. If new insights or information pertaining to this comes later, we will let you know what we discover. We feel confident that this gives everyone a pretty good idea and enough detail, along with our other videos on narcissism, healing, and relationships, to make their own conclusions regarding the best way to move forward, personally. If things are unclear, often doing your own research, contemplation, and drawing your own conclusions will give you the best understanding. We encourage everyone who has questions about any of these things to start forming their own understanding in whatever way they feel is best for them.

Part 9 of this video series will soon follow...
