Q and A time again! Thank you very much for sending in your questions! If you want to send us your questions, please submit them at wespenreproductions@gmail.com.

Here is Q&A Session #40:

QUESTION 1: How is it possible for one Twin (flame) to shift in and out of the other's body/Energy field at a distance (one can bi-locate)? The second part of the question is, how can one twin stop the other from resetting a painful time loop that the other created that they both keep living over and over every day almost to the minute?

ANSWER: We're not sure we completely understand those questions, but we'll try to answer them the way we interpret them. Twin flames can share a unique energy connection, that is true. As for how to make that happen, we aren't sure. For your second question: If you are in a Twin Flame relationship, your growth will inspire growth in the other partner. If your partner is doing something that you perceive as negative or painful, talk about it and work it out. Open and very honest communication is mandatory for this type of relationship. If this doesn't answer your question, feel free to rephrase them, and we'll bring them up again in another Q&A.

QUESTION 2: You stated Enki has abandoned the Singularity, [so] why then do you suggest getting involved with cryptocurrency? And, if the Singularity is no longer on our timeline, are we to believe we no longer have to worry about becoming cyborgs/nano-particle-infested vessels? Also, I have the weirdest feeling that the Queen of Orion (us) came into awareness through sheer loneliness...like I mentioned previously, what instigated her into awareness besides wanting to experience varying degrees of experiences?

ANSWER: Regarding cryptos, this is still the path our world is on. The Singularity already happened on a specific timeline, and that effected En.ki very negatively—something the Pleiadians are also telling us. Therefore, En.ki wants to change this timeline so the negative effects (negative for him) will be nullified. But in order to do so, he needs us to do it. We are the ones who need to make the change—not En.ki, because he can't. And from what it looks like, we are still on the Singularity path. Cryptos will be one of the next steps, and if we don't get involved, we are missing out from being ahead of the game. Why not take advantage of something that is not meant to be for our benefit but can be if we play our cards right?

About the Queen. Yes, that's one way of looking at it—loneliness. In fact, the Divine Feminine (All That Is/Source) was the one who was “lonely” and figured that by sending out a part of Herself into the VOID, who can create individual energy-boosted aspect of Herself, it would not only make things interesting and solve Her loneliness, but She could also learn more about Herself, which is the main purpose with creating universes from what we’ve learned.

QUESTION 3: I know that you are sometimes wary of channeling and people who claim they have ET contact in one way or another. In your opinion, is there ANY way possible that an Extraterrestrial or Extra-Dimensional being can reach us humans from OUTSIDE the Patrix Grid? Alternatively, do you feel ALL forms of non-human contact are within Enki's systems of manipulation?

ANSWER: In our opinion, ALL forms of non-human contact come from within this system, yes. That doesn’t mean that all of it is necessarily bad, but discernment must be practiced. There is a movement to start labeling everything “within the construct” as something that should be avoided. This is not true and not something we promote. We are living here, and so we have no choice but to learn how to navigate this construct in order to fulfill our intentions. How we do that is up to us. Everything here is not evil and there are many good things we can experience. Enjoy your life. Find ways to connect with others and be creative. Use this system to work for you instead of working for it. Turn it around so that you can experience personal healing, growth, and joy.

On the flip side, there are always exceptions from any rule, as we all know, but in general, beings from outside the Construct would NOT engage in channeling. They know better than that. So yes, we have yet to see any channeling, data dump, or other kind of “ET” communication that is not from inside the Construct. Most of it certainly seems to come from “advanced” humans, who have “ascended” through En.ki’s tailormade ascension program, or it is sometimes energized thought-forms that we’ve created with our own thoughts that now have their own life, or it is occasionally the Military Industrial Complex, piloting their programs and using technology that can accomplish these things.

QUESTION 4: In Robert Monroe, Ultimate Journey, one of his Spirit Guides takes him to a probable future (year 3000) that human made! Like they were enlightened; they were about 2 million left.

And they get the signal to travel to a place to be in one with "All there Is" (not sure if this referring to Orion Queen). They are the graduates of Human School and will travel in [a] "Soul Group". He was told by "All there Is" that he is not complete and looking for the "Gift".

Edgar Cayce's work mentioned as well that we can't travel alone and need to travel in [a] "Soul Group". What are your thoughts on this? Should we first recover fragments of ourselves before we can visit Orion and be in one with the Queen?

ANSWER: Yes, we remember that section of Monroe's book. Based on our research and dot-connection, we look at this as Monroe being shown something within the Construct. If you read or have read the RA Material and many other kinds of channeled information, you learn that in the "Higher Densities" (Dimensions) in En.ki's System, individual souls become part of a Collective of souls. We highly suspect that these collectives are the unification of soul aspects of the same soul, who have "graduated" from the Earth plane and reunited in the "Sixth" or "Seventh Density." They are still individuals, but they have access to each other's memory and are working tightly together. For example, in the Sixth Density, the soul aspects of a soul cluster together, whilst in the Seventh Density, all these separate soul groups are able to unite with each other, as well, like in a common "Cloud." The polarity to that would be the Singularity, which will have its own Cloud, where all human experiences are gathered, giving each individual access to the All. But everything is inside the Construct.

It isn't that these beings that are channeled, etc., are intentionally deceptive. They are only giving knowledge based on their current perspective (dimension) and what they know from that position. No, you do not need recover aspects of yourself to leave here. You also will not be "one with the Queen". This is a misunderstanding. You will remain an individual.

QUESTION 5: Wes, in your forum you recently wrote that mini worm holes/black holes won't take us in to the KHAA. So, what is the difference between those and the holes in the grid?

ANSWER: The Grid consists of humanity's mass consciousness, and we are therefore directly connected to it. The mini black holes are probably portals that are the biproduct of "lower" beings' mass consciousness. We don't think that we can use the mini black holes for our own benefit. They don't match the frequency.

QUESTION 6: I know that En.ki and Marduk have switched and even shared names throughout history here on Earth. Is Isis the Mother of Marduk and En.ki the Father?

ANSWER: In a physical way—yes. Osiris (En.ki) and Isis gave birth to Horus (Marduk). But the soul aspect of Marduk, as we have understood it, is just a soul splinter/aspect of En.ki. Marduk, like the other gods—and even we humans—have a genetic and a soul history, and they don't correlate. Marduk, the soul, does not reincarnate within the same bloodline—he can jump from bloodline to bloodline.

QUESTION 7: Since the age of the internet which really started in the late 90's (for the public) we have gotten a lot of information about The Overlords, helping each other raise our overall frequencies with our collective information through Social Media and forums etc. There is no doubt that The Global Elite and AIF (Alien Invader Force/Overlords) are studying our consciousness as a whole. So, will all of this collective information be added to The Cloud/Super Brain Computer in The Singularity? This includes information about The Grid, BLA, they're oppression and manipulation, AI and so on. Will the truth about The Overlords be excluded all together?

ANSWER: According to Dr. Ray Kurzweil, who is a spokesperson for the Singularity, they are gathering information on everybody and everything to put in the Cloud. This doesn't mean that the Overlords can't continue manipulating this information, such as "demonizing" certain information, ridicule it, or otherwise making people ignore it, just like they do now.

We also need to emphasize that we don't know what the final result of this transition will be. All we know is that it will be more suppressive than what we have now.

QUESTION 8: on video 110 you talk about our "collective consciousness" and in other videos you talk about "oversoul". For those leaving through the grid which of the following apply : 1- They are quitting the game before completion and abandoning/separating themselves from our Soul group.? 2- How do they affect or benefit our collective consciousness and oversoul in doing so? 3-Leaving through the grid will provoke imbalance/change on The "Oversoul" or 4-Other.

ANSWER: Instead of picking one of your options, we think it's beneficial to comment on each of your points. Point 1) The question is, those who leave, are they really quitting before completion, or are they completion overdue? 2) We withdraw our consciousness from this system. We do not know how that will affect the collective consciousness. We are aware that there are some promotions and attempts to provoke feelings of shame and guilt for leaving others behind. This is succeeding in triggering feelings of abandonment for some people, and it's best to work through our own issues with emotional manipulation or we will be vulnerable to those types of attempts.

The benefit is that those who leave are finally free to explore and experience the KHAA/Greater Universe, where they can contribute with creations that can benefit both themselves and others. They can create freely, which they can't do here within the Construct. 3) No, it won't. The Oversoul would be the Queen, and She won't get imbalanced. Each genuine human soul who is incarnated here is their own individual and will remain so after she leaves the Construct, as well. We will not "merge" with the Queen—we will continue as separate creator gods/goddesses. Right now, our Oversoul is cut off and almost all experience is being kept inside this system in En.ki's Akashic Records or "Book of Life".

QUESTION 9: The ascending into the 5th world had been predicted in the Hopi Indian culture, is it coincidence or feels all part of the plan they rolling out and forcing the 5G network making us into anti humans?

ANSWER: The Native Americans in general are remnants from Atlantis before the Flood. Some of them even go back to Lemuria (Mu), as discussed in the Wes Penre Papers. They are survivors of the Flood. Native Indians, who don't know the full truth, see Manitou, or whoever god they are worshipping, as the Great Spirit, which (as usual) refers back to En.ki. It doesn't matter if they know that or not—En.ki has put himself in the position as God of this Universe/Construct. We don't believe 5G is related to the 5th Dimension other than the number 5.

QUESTION 10: In the First War in Heaven: Devastating weapons were used that [can] shatter the Avatar, and there were losses on both sides, but The Khan (Khan En.lil), The Queen Of The Stars, and Prince En.lil Jr, aka Ninurta, lost good fully Spirited beings in Orion. This "death" cannot compare to how we humans kill each other here on Earth because we go on into the astral and continue on from there with towards our path. Are these Spirits totally annihilated?

ANSWER: Yes, some of them were probably annihilated, unfortunately. At least, that's our understanding, from what we've concluded from our research. Some human souls DID escape, however, and went to Orion together with Prince Ninurta, exiting through the stargate of Saturn, which at that time was our Sun.

Consider watching this video to the final end, so you don't miss out on our video mini-series about Tiamaat and humanity's origins. If you missed earlier episodes, the mini-series started with Episode 1 at the end of Video 187. There will be one episode at the end of each of these YouTube videos from hereon. Hope you'll find them interesting!
